The story is about a young barn owl called Plop, who is frightened of the dark. The plot is divided into seven chapters, each covering a night during which Plop learns something new about the dark: dark is exciting, dark is kind, dark is fun, dark is necessary, dark is fascinating, dark is wonderful and dark is beautiful. Plop is gradually persuaded that the dark has its advantages.

The Owl Who Was Afraid of the Dark by Jill Tomlinson 2001

The owl is afraid of the dark and wants to be a day bird. But then he meets a number of animals and people that share with him the excitement of night time and out his fears to rest. I only took off one star because the story about the old lady using night to remember her past was very saddening to me. I may skip reading that part to children because I do not think they will connect to it.
